The U. S. of A.

*This is the place that Columbus claimed.
 This is the place that sold claim to fame.
 This is the place of glamour and stars.
 This is the place that's taking pictures of Mars:
 This is also a place of sorrow and pain,
 While continuing to be a place with so much to gain.
 This is a place of honorable men and women
 Because this is a place where people are giving.
 And in this place are many struggles, and strife,
 But this same place advocate human rights.
 This is a place of no dictatorship, you're free!
 And this is the place many around the world want to be.
 Within this place is where free enterprise exist.
 And also in this place you don't give up, you persist!
 Because this is the place where you're free to do it your way!
 This place in North America called...
 The U. S. of A.*
