This was a great show for the first one this year with Hi points and 1st places. It was a fun show for everyone.

Progress

My eggs don't come from chickens, and
My butter's not from cows.
My food's full of preservatives
The F.D.A. allows.

My salt is just a substitute
My cheese contains no fat.
My drinks are dietetic, and
They taste a little flat.

My bread is full of vitamins;
It's dark, and made of wheat.
My cereals are all whole grain,
And they are never sweet.

Men liked their women padded, in
The days when I was thin;
But now that I have added curves,
The skinny look is in.

They say this scientific age
Gets better every year.
That all the new discoveries
Deserve a great big cheer.

But sometimes, when in retrospect
I view the hand of fate,
I really feel that I was born
One hundred years too late!

Did You Know?

- People weigh less if they stand at the equator than if they stand at the North or South poles.
- At their closest points, the U.S. and the Soviet Union are over 2 miles (3km) apart.
- German chocolate cake is named after a guy named Sam German, not the country.
- The creature that kills the most people every year isn't snakes, sharks, or even other humans. It's the mosquito.
- The Sun City Poms is a cheerleading squad in Arizona that only people 55 or older can join.
- The last letter added to the English alphabet wasn't Z – it was the letter J.
- It's illegal to own just one guinea pig in Switzerland because they get lonely.
- A can of Mountain Dew can dissolve a mouse.
- Wearing green on St. Patrick's Day is believed to make you invisible to leprechauns.
- In America, many people eat corned beef and cabbage.
- For many years, St. Patrick's Day was considered a more solemn, religious occasion in Ireland and all pubs were closed for the day.

Enjoy the little things in life because one day you'll look back and realize they were the big things.
