The Lord Listens

The Lord doesn't listen just to the strong,
Or to only the brave and the wise;
But He seeks out the needy, and broken and poor,
And those who have tears in their eyes.

He loves all His saints who give praise to His Name,
And all those who are faithful and just,
But He also loves sinners who call on His Name,
And He longs for their faith and their trust.

He patiently calls all the lost ones to come
And drink from the fountain of life.
He'll forgive ev'ry sin, and He'll heal ev'ry wound,
And give peace midst all troubles and strife.

For He knows ev'ry heart, and He hears ev'ry cry,
And He always is there when we call,
He'll provide all our needs from His boundless supply,
When we love Him, and give Him our all.

Did You Know?

- Rabbits can see behind them without moving their heads.
- Mistletoe has no scent
- There are no seagulls in Hawaii.
- Raccoons have four times more sensory cells in their paws than most mammals.
- Being compassionate to others—as well as oneself—leads to greater happiness.
- The word “good-bye” is a contraction of “God be with ya.”
- The black dot on the inside surface of a monarch’s wing distinguishes the male monarch butterfly from the female, which has no spot.
- Knitting was initially a male-only occupation. In fact, when the very first knitting union was established in Paris in 1527, no women were allowed.
- Knitting acts as a natural antidepressant and can help ease anxiety, depression, and chronic pain. It can also protect the brain from aging.
- The most popular item at Walmart is bananas. They sell more bananas than any other single item they have in stock.

Worry slanders every promise
